

It is so important to me to keep K-LOVE on the air! Previously we had stations similar, but with so many commercials, the message was lost. We are currently the only city in LA. to carry this station and it's positive message. I personally listen to it every day. I would be lost without it.